

5-2 - Creating Your Own Warrior Special Offer

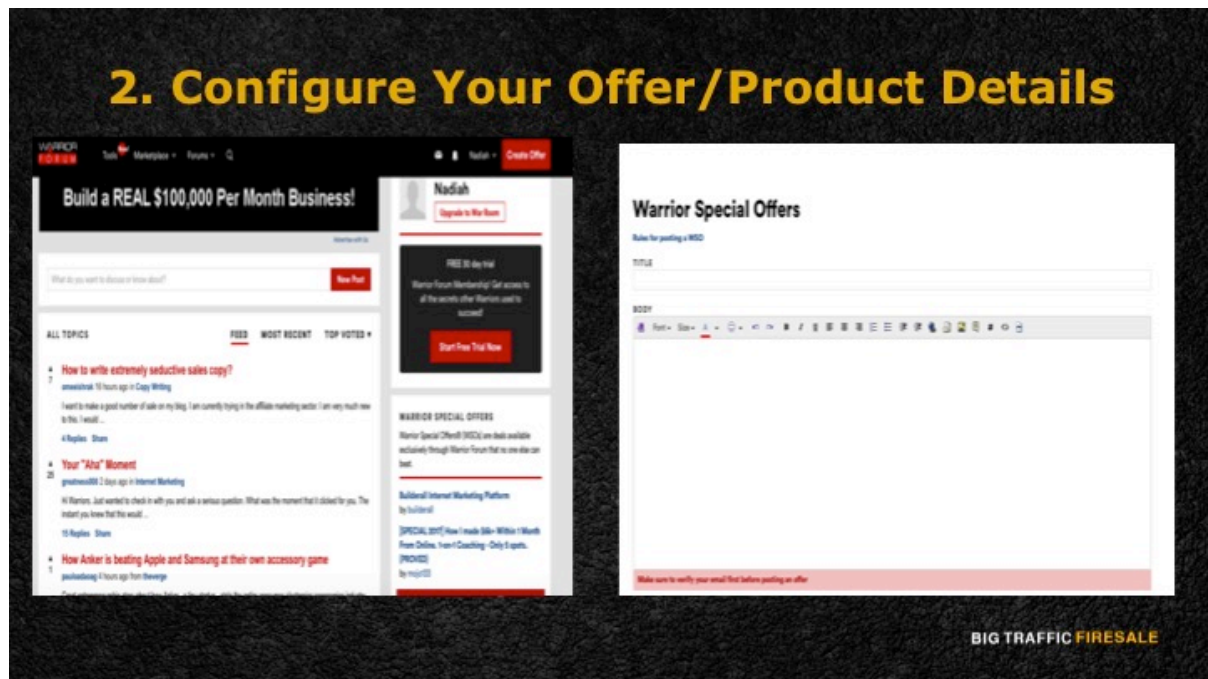

S1: Hi there. In this module, we will discuss the steps on how to create your own WSO on the Warrior Forum.

S2: The first step to kick-start your offer is by signing up as a member to the Warrior Forum and creating your own account. When you've created your account and logged in, navigate to 'Create a WSO Page' by clicking on the 'Create Offer (WSO)' in the top menu. The cost of creating an offer is a fixed price of $20.

S3: When you click on 'Create Offer', you are left with 2 steps to start your offer under 'Warrior Payments'. The first step leads you to configure most of your product details which includes:

- The title of your offer
- Uploading your product or specifying your URL
- Selecting your product category
- Setting up a subscription payment if needed
- Your product price
- Giving access to affiliates to promote your product
- Connecting to Paypal
- Setting up a 'Dimesale' or 'Timesale'
- Connecting to your 'Autoresponder'
- Allowing your offer to be featured as a 'Warrior Daily Deal' where you also have to choose a commission rate

2. Create Your Own Sales Copy

BIG TRAFFIC FIRESALE

S4: The second step is to create your product's offer by creating your own sales copy. This page will be loaded once you have completed the first step by clicking Save and Continue.

When you have clicked Save and Continue, your offer is published directly to the Warrior Forum and it creates your 'Thread'.

On your thread, other users of the forum are able to comment and ask questions regarding your product where you can reply to their queries.
